

Science detectives

Search information about these questions and answer in your notebook. Use google, kiddle and remember to type "for kids", so get the information you can read and understand.

1. Does pregnancy last the same in all species? How does it take pregnancy in a cat? And in an elephant?
2. What is a bronquitis?
3. What is a neumonia?
4. Why are allergies produced? Give examples of the most common allergies.
5. What is urine infection? Why does it happen?
6. What are the main arteries and veins in the body? The main arteries are the ones that carry more blood.

