Vocabulary

- 1 Look at the photos and discuss them with other students. Who breaks the law? Who defends the law?

- 2 2.12 Match the words to the people in the photos (1–5). There are two words that you won't need. Then listen and check.

burglar   detective   judge   lawyer
mugger   police officer   traffic warden

Bicycle thief

A local man stole over twenty bicycles in two months. Police arrested the thief this morning.

Police catch fraudster

Police have caught a fraudster, who produced thousands of false €100 bank notes.

Student learns hard lesson

A judge sent an 18-year-old girl to prison after she wrote threatening messages on a social networking site.

The most unpopular job

According to a recent survey, traffic wardens are the most unpopular professionals in the UK.

Mugger makes big mistake

A mugger, who hit a man and tried to steal his wallet last night, had a surprise: the victim was a lawyer.

Vocabulary practice

3 Look at the highlighted words in the news headlines. In your notebook, match them to the definitions.

- 1 An officer who checks on car parking.
- 2 A criminal who steals things.
- 3 A criminal who gets money by deceiving others.
- 4 A criminal who attacks people to steal money or objects.
- 5 A person who decides how a criminal should be punished.
- 6 Someone who represents people in court and gives them advice about the law.

4 Look at the criminals in the news headlines. Who do you think committed the most serious crime? Why?

5 Look at the crime fighters in the photos and in the news headlines. Who do you think has the most difficult job? Why?

6 Watch and listen to the video.
