

Shakespeare's quotes

Match the halves to make quotes by Shakespeare:

To be, or not to be:	than a minute too late
Brevity is	do wrong to none
When sorrows come, they come not single spies,	but the wise man knows himself to be a fool
All the world 's a stage,	cannot be undone
For ever	but in battalions
The fool doth think he is wise,	nothing can he lose
If you prick us, do we not bleed?	and a day
A man can die	steals something from the thief
Having nothing,	if you tickle us, do we not laugh?
What 's done	that is the question
The robbed that smiles	but once
Have more than you show,	the soul of wit
We know what we are	and all the men and women merely players
Love all, trust a few	is done
Better three hours too soon	speak less than you know
Listen to many	but know not what we may be
What's done	speak to a few

Shakespeare's quotes

KEY

To be, or not to be:	that is the question
Brevity is	the soul of wit
When sorrows come, they come not single spies,	but in battalions
All the world 's a stage,	and all the men and women merely players
For ever	and a day
The fool doth think he is wise,	but the wise man knows himself to be a fool
If you prick us, do we not bleed?	if you tickle us, do we not laugh?
A man can die	but once
Having nothing,	nothing can he lose
What 's done	is done
The robbed that smiles	steals something from the thief
Have more than you show,	speak less than you know
We know what we are	but know not what we may be
Love all, trust a few	do wrong to none
Better three hours too soon	than a minute too late
Listen to many	speak to a few
What's done	cannot be undone

Images:

- <http://www.bradfitzpatrick.com/shop/index.php?url=people-characters/cartoon-shakespeare-clipart/>
- <http://clipart-library.com/clipart/2003434.htm>

Esta obra está bajo una Licencia Creative Commons Atribución-NoComercial-CompartirIgual 4.0 Internacional.