INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY (MARCH 8th)

International Women's Day commemorates the movement for women's right.

On March 8, 1917, in the capital of the Russian Empire, Petrograd, women textile workers demonstrated, which was the beginning of the Russian Revolution. Seven days later, the Emperor Nicholas II abdicated and the Government granted women the right to vote.

March 8th was declared a national holiday in 1917. It was adopted in 1975 by the United Nations.

Why should we all be feminists? (Video activity)

- Discuss the question in groups.
- Watch the video.
- Write down some ideas you have found interesting or shocking.
- Make a poster with your ideas and present them in front of the class.

Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie: We should all be feminists

We teach girls that they can have ambition, but not too much ... to be successful, but not too successful, or they'll threaten men, says author Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie. In this classic talk that started a worldwide conversation about feminism, Adichie asks that we begin to dream about and plan for a different, fairer world -- of happier men and women who are truer to themselves.

U.S. allows women to fight in wars

26th January, 2013

Creative Commons via The U.S. Army on Flickr

The U.S. Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta has announced one of the biggest reforms of the American military in decades. He has lifted the ban on women fighting on the front line in future wars. The new ruling reinforces the fact that women have been putting their lives at risk for many years. Mr Panetta told reporters: "Female service members have faced the reality of combat, proving their willingness to fight and, yes, to die to defend their fellow Americans." Panetta said many very able women soldiers have been prevented from doing a job they love because of their gender. He said: "We owe it to them to allow them to pursue every avenue of military service for which they are fully prepared and qualified."

Today I Rise

Where are you? Where are you, little girl with broken wings but full of hope?
Where are you, wise women covered in wounds? Where are you?
Today is the day I will not sit still and give in anymore.
Today I rise.
I am bruised but I will get up and walk again.
Today I rise.
I don't care if you ignore my beauty.
Today I rise.
