

VOCABULARY UNIT 1: THE CLASSROOM

Things in the Classroom
The board /'bɔ:rd]/
The door /'dɔ:]/
A w indow /'windəʊ/
A chair /'tʃeə/
A coat /'kəʊt/
A table /'teɪbəl/
A l aptop /'læptɒp/
A d ictionary /'dɪkʃənəri/
A piece of p aper /'pi:s əv 'peɪpə/
A pen /'pen/
A bag /'bæg/
A computer /kəm'pjʊ:tə/
A desk /'desk/
A picture /'pɪktʃə/
A table /'teɪbəl/
A wall /'wɔ:l/

PHRASES IN THE CLASSROOM

The teacher says...	The student says...
Look at the board please	How do you spell it?
O pen your books	Sorry? Can you re peat that, please?
Go to page 10	Can I have a copy, please?
Close your books	I don't u nderstand
Stand up, please	I don't know
Sit down	Sorry, I'm late
Do exercise 1	E xcuse me. What's gracias in E nglish?
Read the text	How do you say gracias in English?
Look at the board	Can you help me, please?
Work in pairs / in groups	What page is it?
Answer the questions	-----
Listen and repeat	-----
Turn off your phone	-----
Please stop talking!	-----

RECUERDA!!!

-No olvides (tal y como se indica en algunas expresiones) usar PLEASE al principio o al final de la frase para ser POLITE (educado).

-Las sílabas subrayadas en algunas palabras indican dónde recae el acento.